

Our Mission

The mission of Legati Christi is to train Christians to be ambassadors for Christ. An Ambassador needs to be able to think critically about their beliefs in order to answer the tough questions and challenges they face in the world we live in today, and do so in a graceful, winsome manner.